RIGHTS OF LABOR.

Robert G. Ingersoll on Workmen and Employers.

NEW YORK, April 27th.—Robert G. Ingersoll had the following editorial over his own signature in the Journal yesterday: I hardly know enough of the subject to give an opinion as to the time when eight hours are to become a day's work, but I am perfectly satisfied that eight hours will become the labor day. Working people should be protected by law. If they are not, capitalists will require just as many hours as human nature will bear. For a man to get up before daylight and work till after dark life is of no particular importance. He simply earns enough one day to prepare himself to work another. His whole life is spent in want and toil, and such life is without value. Of course, I cannot say that the present effort is going to succeed. All I can say is that I hope it will. I cannot see how any man who does nothing can insist that others should work ten or twelve hours a day. Neither can I see how any man who lives on the luxuries of life can find it in his heart, or in his stomach, to say that the poor ought to be satisfied with the crusts and crumbs they get.

I believe there is to be a revolution in the relations between labor and capital. The working people are reasoners. Their hands and heads are in partnership. They know a great deal more than the capitalists. It takes a thousand times more brain to make a locomotive than it does to run a store or a bank, and there is a great deal more intelligence in the steamship and in all the thousand machines and devices that are now working for the world. These working people read; they meet together; they discuss; they are becoming more and more independent in thought. They do not believe all they hear. The free school in this country has tended to put men on an equality, and the mechanic understands his side of the case and is able to express his views. Under the circumstances there must be a revolution. The laboring men, however, ought to remember that all who labor are their brothers and that all women who labor are their sisters, and whenever one class of working men or working women is oppressed all other laborers ought to stand by the oppressed class.

Any man who wishes to force his brother to work more than eight hours a day is not a civilized man. My hope for the workingman has its foundation in the fact that he is growing more and more intelligent. I have also some hope for the capitalist, when both become intelligent the matter will be settled. Neither labor nor capital should resort to force.

BE UP AND DOING.

For many years the Carson Tribune has called on the young Americans to assert their rights and again reminds them that this being a State political year it behooves them to be up and doing. In the cities of San Francisco, Sacramento and in fact all over the State of California the native sons make themselves heard and are a power to be respected, and why should not those of the Silver State do likewise?

There are matters of great import to our State which should receive serious consideration and it is a well-recognized fact that procrastination in such affairs invariably cause non-success. Particular attention should be paid to the nomination of legislators from the several counties, for never did Nevada stand in need of good, fair and square legislation more than at the present time.

The question of calling a Constitutional Convention is an all-important one and deserves the deepest consideration, and so let the young brains be joined with the older and have an organization formed by constant meetings to ascertain the sentiments of all on this and other matters connected with State affairs, for in order to maintain Statehood the expenses must be reduced, and nothing but a revision of the Constitution can accomplish that desirable end.

So we say: Young men to the front! and show by your acts that when the graybeards shall have passed away their places can be well filled.

In the above remarks politics are not referred to, although of course the Tribune advocates the Republican side, but the express desire is to see the young men act in such affairs as interested parties and show themselves worthy the title of Americans.

"The Tahoe waters be damned." That is what, in effect, the Reno people say when they insist upon the closing of the gates at the head of the Truckee river. —Tuscarora Times-Review.

Medical Officers Needed in the Army and Navy.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Board appointed by the War Department to conduct the examination of the candidates for the eighteen vacancies in the Army and Navy Medical Bureau met here to-day. It is hoped by the War Department that suitable material for increasing the force of medical officers of the army to the full number authorized by law will now be found. It has been several years since the medical departments of the army and navy have had their full quota of officers, a condition of affairs that is due to the severity of the examinations prescribed for the army medical officers, and the small pay and slim prospect of promotion for medical officers of the navy.

An Appeal for a Statue to Randall.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, April 29.—General H. V. Boynton, Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, makes an appeal to the Society of the Army of the Cumberland to erect in Washington an equestrian statue to the memory of Mr. Randall's service as a private cavalryman. In this appeal General Boynton says: "The death of Mr. Randall carries a message to every surviving veteran of the Army of the Cumberland. The society of that army has erected in Washington to General Thomas the finest statue which the city contains. Now let it set up in this national capital a statue of Samuel J. Randall the private soldier, upon whose recommendation Colonel George H. Thomas was made a Brigadier General and started on his career of renown."

The President Gives Some Sound Reasons for a Veto.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, April 29.—President Harrison, in vetoing the bill authorizing the construction of an addition to a public building at Dallas, Texas, at a cost of $200,000 says: "I am not unfriendly to liberal annual expenditure for the erection of public buildings where necessary. Such appropriations, however, should be kept at a minimum until the effect of other probable legislation is accurately measured. For the enlarged relief and recognition of soldiers and sailors of the war, for necessary coast defenses and for the extension of our commerce with the American States are of universal necessity and involve considerations not of convenience but of justice, honor, safety and general prosperity."

The Pioneers.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Members of the Society of California Pioneers, of New England, who arrived in this city yesterday were given an informal reception at Pioneer Hall this afternoon. The reception room were filled with New England visitors and members of the society residing in this city. An hour or more was spent in friendly greetings, after which an address of welcome was made by President Edward Kreuz, of the San Francisco Society. He was followed by Mayor Pond and A. M. Ebbets, ex-President of the State Mining Bureau; Captain William H. Thomas President of the visiting society, responded. A banquet was served after the reception.

War Among the Fishermen.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
PORTLAND, Or., April 29.—A shooting affray occurred this morning at Danby, a fishing station on the Columbia river, between union and non-union fishermen. A party of union fishermen came from Astoria to Danby last night and when the two factions met this morning the shooting took place.

The Mother Lode Discovered.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.

Three Loggers Drowned.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
PORTLAND, April 29.—The news is received from Woodland, Clark county, Washington, that on last Friday Jos. Bells, Thomas Bells and Marion Wymore were drowned in Cedar Creek while rafting logs. The bodies have not yet been recovered.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The Probable Action of Congress—A Thorough Canvass of the House.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—The Press yesterday published the most complete and careful poll of the majority in Congress ever made by a newspaper. The purpose was to ascertain the views of individual members as to the necessity of passing the Tariff Revision and Reduction bill as speedily as possible. Interviews were had with 200 Senators and Representatives.

The Press interviewers found what opposition exists to the McKinley bill on the Republican side of the House, and by extending the interviews to Democrats, found the particular line of attack upon the bill likely to be adopted by the opposition. A fact of supreme importance is that a bill revising the tariff and reducing the revenues will be enacted before Congress adjourns for the Summer.

The Press interviewed 100 Republicans, and with two exceptions they all agree that the Republican tariff bill will be passed, and while differences exist as to the making up of the schedules, the entire party is in accord on the general principle and purpose of the McKinley bill.

While the interviews show the strong sentiment on the part of the Republicans in favor of the bill, even if some features of it are not wholly in accord with the individual opinion of the member called upon to express his views, there is a singular dearth of strong criticism on the part of the Democrats. In a general way the Democrats protest against the bill without going into particulars. They admit the probability of its passing, but they are evidently displeased with a measure which offers the masses of the people free sugar on the one hand and the farmers of the country additional protection on important articles which they produce on the other hand.

The result is summarized as follows: Total number interviewed, 209; total number of Republicans interviewed, 159; number of Republicans who believe a bill revising the tariff and reducing the revenue must be passed before this Congress adjourns, 20; number now ready to vote for the McKinley bill as it stands, 141; number who believe the McKinley bill is sure to be satisfactory to the party and country by amendments and passed, 118; number who are not sure, about 7.

The Strike About Over.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
CHICAGO, April 29.—The initial step toward declaring the carpenters' strike off has been taken and many members of the new association think work will be resumed Friday. The Old Master Carpenters' Association will be boycotted. A committee from the Old Master Association called on the Mayor this afternoon to ask for adequate police protection for non-union men with whom they propose to resume work next week. They were promised all the protection possible.

Lacked a Quorum.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, April 29.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the bill providing for the classification of worsted clothes as woollens. Breckenridge offered an amendment providing for raw woolens and a duty of 35 per cent ad valorem on worsted and woollen clothes after October 1, 1890. Ruled out of order. The committee reported the bill to the House but on its passage no quorum voted and the House adjourned.

A Strike in the Idaho Mine.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
GRASS VALLEY, Cal., April 29.—Great excitement prevailed here among the miners on the appearances in the famous Idaho mine, in the 1,700 foot level running east of the body of ore 200 feet from the shaft, whereas no pay ore was expected in a less distance than 1,500 feet in that level. The Wyod mine this afternoon cut a ledge that is filled with free gold.

Dressed Beef Syndicate.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
CHICAGO, April 29.—E. E. Booge, D. T. Hedges and A. Garretson, of Sioux City, Iowa, are in this city in consultation with Armour and other dressed beef men on a matter which promises to revolutionize the meat business of the entire Pacific Coast. Hedges said in an interview: "All our deals thus far have been successful. We expect to establish immense packing houses in San Francisco and begin operations at once. Batching on the Pacific Slope is still carried on in a primitive way, and as San Francisco is to the Western slope what New York City is to the Eastern coast, it is easy to see the practicability of our scheme. A few millions of dollars have been secured and we can get more if it should be needed. We have not only decided on a San Francisco plant but also on smaller establishments in different sections of the West. Perhaps we may do something in the State of Washington."

"Is there any other man interested besides Armour?"

"I didn't say he was interested himself. I'll say this, though, Armour does not miss a good opportunity to branch out in his line of business."

"Then, if your scheme is a good one, he will be one of the syndicate?"

"Exactly."

A Murderous Indian.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
LINCOLN, O., April 29.—John Major, an Indian living near the Williamson river bridge, about seven miles from the Klamath agency, shot his wife twice with a Winchester rifle Sunday, killing her instantly. Major then went to the house of another Indian, about two miles from his home, and shot him dead. Six policemen and about twenty other Indians started on the trail of the murderer. He was finally discovered concealed behind a log. Indians shot at Major, who continued to return the fire until both arms were broken, when he fell back and was shot dead by the Indians. Major is supposed to have been insane.

The Nevada State University Literary Society will hold their second annual public day exercises next Friday. A very interesting programme has been arranged.

Sheep pelts are said to be worth nine cents per pound at the railroad at Winnemucca. If such is the fact those who made a business of saving the pelts of the sheep which perished in the snow last winter are well paid for their labor.

BURGLARIOUS TRAMPS.

They are Getting too Numerous and Rather Familiar.

Constable Upson and his deputies are kept busy handling in the large number of tramps who are stopping off in Reno for their health. Monday the Constable captured seven, two of whom are wanted in Los Angeles for robbing a jewelry store of $1,000 worth of jewelry. Part of the plunder was found on their persons. An officer is on the way from Los Angeles for these gentlemen.

The residence of Dr. Bergstein was entered through the cellar Monday night and the premises relieved of half a dozen silver spoons, the same number of silver forks, a silver soup ladle, a carving knife and several other articles worth in all about $60. Senator Frank Emmitt's house was also gone through, but the burglars only succeeded in getting away with a gold watch, having overlooked in their probable haste Frank's private sack which contained considerable money, so the Senator says.

The town seems to be full of these disreputable characters and people should be careful about leaving valuables around while these migratory appropriators are sojourning among us. The officers are very vigilant and are working hard to capture all that can be found.

A Modoc County Murder.

A. Broili, a merchant at Willow Ranch, Modoc county, was murdered by unknown parties last Tuesday evening. Mr. Broili was in the habit of sleeping in his store, which is situated from a quarter to half a mile distant from his residence. On the evening of the murder he went to the house for supper, and while returning to the store for the night was shot, and afterward his head was beaten to a pulp. His wife did not think anything of his absence until his body was found by a couple of drummers who were en route to Alturas. He was in well-to-do circumstances, and leaves a wife and several children. He was a good citizen and highly respected. No clue as to who the guilty party or parties are has yet been obtained. As to the motive of the crime, it is still a mystery.

Fast Freight.

A. H. Pratt's fast freight line from Alturas to Ligan will again be resumed this week. Mr. Pratt informs the Modoc Independent that he will start for Ligan from Alturas to-day, the 30th inst., and will arrive in Ligan on Saturday, and will start on the return trip the same day. The following rates will be charged: Passengers from Alturas to Ligan, $4; from Ligan to Alturas, $8; freight from Alturas to Ligan, 1 1/2 cts.; from Ligan to Alturas, 3 cts.

THAT ANCIENT RIVER.

Professor Hanks Combats a Popular Theory of Miners.

Professor H. G. Hanks has been writing some elaborate articles for the Mining and Scientific Press to disprove the ancient river theory which is commonly accepted by miners to account for gold-bearing quartz found in this State. These are the main points he produces against that belief: "If the rivers were extensive and powerful enough to round quartz boulders and convey them so far as claimed, the force of the current would have ground animal and vegetable life to a powder and have wholly obliterated them. The same river at the same time could not have deposited the pipe clay, filled as it is with perfect leaves as described by Dr. Traak.

"No observant person can stand in the uncovered channel of a hydraulic mine, or at the breast of a California drift mine, and believe that this vast work was that of a river. If the work of a river, all the boulders brought down would not be quartz, for no river could flow through a country all of the rocks of which are quartz, or discriminate and select from the great multitude of known rocks quartz fragments only and reject all others, nor could any river 1,000 feet wide or more convey large boulders or move gold. If the work of rivers, the silty deposit called 'brick bat' by the Georgia gold miners, and found at the Edman mine, Plumas county, and elsewhere, in the deep placer region, would not cover so wide an area.

"The same river that conveyed and deposited the boulders twenty tons in weight could not have subsequently filled the interstices with the finest of silt as described by Professor Blake and others, which did not mar the perfection of fine leaves. If believed by many, they would be only in the beds of streams, while in fact they are found by drift miners in the banks, far above the bedrock."

AN HISTORIC RELIC.

"Uncle" Alf Estill Makes a Present to a Turfman Friend.

The desk of Secretary Kook, of the new York Jockey Club, is now ornamented with a handsome inkstand of black marble with silver trimmings, which is both admired and envied by all horsemen who have seen it. Above the ink well is arranged so as to make a clever pen rack one of the plates worn by the famous El Rio Rey when he made his record of 1:11 at the track of the New York Jockey Club in the White Plains Handicap on Saturday, August 31, 1889. The nails which fastened the plate to the hoof of the flyer form rests for the pen holders, and the plate is supported at the back by one of the spurs which Winchell wore on that day.

All these are heavily plated with silver, and held in place by a framework of the same material. On this work is the inscription, "Presented to T. H. Kook, Secretary of the N. Y. J. C., by Alf Estill." A smaller plate bears these words: "El Rio Rey, 1:11." The whole affair is in Tiffany's best style, and the donor, Mr. Estill, is the manager of the Theodore Winters' stable, to which El Rio Rey belongs.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-ly

WHAT ON EARTH

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John bones or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at actual price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEECH'S BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing.
